

Jeremy Envid, Trumpet

EDUCATION

B.S. in Music Education
Certified in both instrumental and vocal
Lee University, Cleveland, TN
Graduation Date: May 10, 2003
GPA: 3.79/4.0

Kodaly Level I training course from UTC – method of teaching music through the use of the voice as the primary instrument.

CPI Training Course – A nonviolent crisis prevention and intervention course for teachers.

Student Teaching requirements for the education program at Lee were fulfilled at Cleveland High School and Cleveland Middle School, as well as at Cohutta Elementary School and Tunnel Hill Elementary School.

EXPERIENCE

Valley Point Middle School, Director of Bands for grades 6th-8th and Assistant Band Director for Southeast High School.

Michigan Avenue Elementary School, Music Specialist for grades K-5 and director for the 4th/5th grade children's choir for the 2003-2004 school year.

Staff, Lee University Music Resource Center: August 2002 through April 2003.

Music Building Monitor, Lee University: August 1999 through November 2002.

Private Trumpet Instructor, Cleveland Middle School: February 2002 through April 2002.

Self-Employed freelance trumpet performer for weddings, churches and various parties/events.

Performed in both Vienna and Salzburg, Austria and Munich, Germany the summer of 2002 with the Lee University Chamber orchestra, in partial fulfillment of required courses. These cities were the birth places and residences of Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven.

HONORS

During enrollment at Lee University, achieved the honors of Dean's List as well as earned a nomination for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Recipient of music scholarships for performing in University groups such as the Lee University Symphonic Band, Jazz Ensemble, Wind Ensemble, Pep Band, and Campus Choir.

Recipient of the Instrumental Music Education Award from Lee University's Instrumental Department.