To Whom It May Concern:

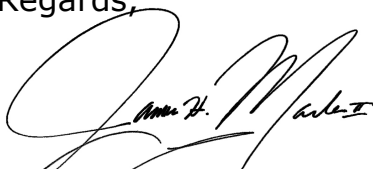

Today I have the pleasant task of composing a letter recommendation for Tiffany Envid. But first, let me tell you something about myself.

I am a composer and arranger. I received an MFA in Composition from NYU's Tisch School of the Arts. I have, in Broadway pit orchestras, professional orchestras and other bands worked with more than 1,400 different musicians during the course of my life. As a conductor, I have overseen the rehearsals of solo performances, duets, trios small ensembles and grand orchestras.

I say all of this to give scope to these words: Tiffany is one of the finest musicians with whom I have ever had the pleasure to work. She is consummately professional. Her performance technique is near flawless. She is as comfortable and capable playing alone for a small wedding or an audience of thousands as she is playing with a large orchestra. I use no hyperbole when I say she is the finest harpist I have ever known.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Regards,

James H. Marler, II
